Product Information

We only provide general information on our website about our products and services. If you are considering purchasing a product or service, you should ensure that you read and understand the Product Disclosure Statement fully. Our website also enables you to purchase and pay for insurance products and services and administer your insurance policy online.

Electronic Transactions

Our website enables you to make certain transactions online, whether this relates to you purchasing a policy, administering your policy, making a renewal payment, or any other transaction. These transactions will not be complete until we have received and processed your confirmation.

Your confirmation means any communication issued or transmitted by you to us via our website or other electronic means, containing your acceptance in relation to our offer, or your confirmation of payment, whichever is applicable.

Your confirmation of any payment may not be received by us for reasons inclusive of mechanical, software, computer, telecommunications, or electronic failure, or the omission or failure of other providers or systems, which are outside of the control of either party. You acknowledge that we are not liable to you in any way for loss or damage at all and however caused, directly arising out of; or indirectly in connection with the transmission of; your confirmation to us.

Purchasing a Policy

Our website enables you to purchase insurance products online. To create a valid insurance policy with us via our website, there is a simple three-step process:

1. We create a quote for the insurance product you are interested in and have selected. You can exit our website and save your quote information at any time. Your quotation will be stored within our database for a period of at least thirty (30) days. An e-mail will be sent to you providing a link back to our website, which allows you to return to your quote and complete all required information. For security purposes, you will be requested to re-enter your e-mail address.
2. If you complete the relevant information, you will receive a quote, you are then asked to confirm the information you have provided related to the product you have chosen. Once you have confirmed all information as being complete, a summary of your quotation is displayed. Your quote will remain valid and accessible on the secure web page for a period of up to thirty (30) days from the date the quote process was started; and
3. If you wish to purchase the insurance product in accordance with a quote provided to you by us via our website, then after you have completed the required details, you will be requested to answer further questions. Upon successful completion and acceptance by us of those questions, you may then accept that quote by pressing the "Buy" button on our website. To create a valid insurance policy with us, you will also be requested to enter a payment method and your nominated account details for premium deduction. You will then be provided with a corresponding Youi policy number, Policy Schedule and PDS.

You may be contacted either by e-mail, sms, telephone or all three (3), depending upon the method of contact you selected, or the business reason for contacting you. Our sales advisors will assist in answering any questions you may have in relation to the quotation. They may also provide general product information only in relation to our product for which you have requested a quotation.

The insurance policy has been entered into by the process of:

1. our offer of insurance being made via our website electronically; and
2. your confirmation to us of your acceptance of that offer via our website.

We are under no obligation to determine the authenticity or investigate whether authority has been provided for persons who have transmitted or issued electronic confirmations through our website. We may act on and process all completed confirmations transmitted or issued through our website without further consent from, or reference to, you.

When entering into an insurance policy with us via our website, your acceptance of our offer of insurance will have been taken to have been communicated when:

1. your confirmation containing your acceptance is received and processed by us; and

2. a Youi policy number is generated and issued to you; and
3. we receive all required details of a current and valid credit card or nominated bank account number which you are authorised to use, and which is of a suitable type for us to charge premium to, or collect premium from, whichever is applicable.

By entering these details and using our website, you further agree that we are authorised to use the account or credit card details provided, for the purpose of collecting periodic payments depending on the payment method you have selected, and to continue to use these to effect renewal of your insurance, unless you instruct us not to do so.

Issuing a Policy

Your insurance contract is only valid, when we are able to:

1. successfully charge against your nominated credit card; or
2. direct debit from your nominated bank account; and
3. we receive payment of your applicable premium (either by a single payment or where permitted, in instalments).

A Youi policy number, Policy Schedule and PDS will be issued to you via email and also by post.

Any failure by you to receive a Youi policy number, Policy Schedule and PDS via our website does not invalidate the existence of an insurance policy or transaction entered into using our website.

Please contact us immediately if you do not receive a Youi policy number, Policy Schedule and PDS via our website following your transaction.

Our offer and your acceptance of that offer, together with your payment constitutes your insurance policy or contract with us.

Making a Renewal Payment

We will provide notification regarding the renewal of your insurance policy, at least fourteen (14) days prior to the expiry date of your policy. Renewal of your insurance policy will be automatic, unless we receive your confirmation advising that you wish to cancel your insurance policy.

Should you wish to change your payment method, credit card or nominated bank account details, you can do so by visiting our website and using our online policy manager.

Your insurance policy will only be valid upon us being able to:

1. successfully charge against your nominated credit card or direct debit from your nominated bank account; and
2. receive payment of all applicable renewal premiums due for the policy (or policies) being renewed (either in a single payment or where permitted, by instalments)

Our offer of renewal and your acceptance of that offer, together with your renewal payment constitutes your insurance policy or contract with us.
